

A Genealogical & Blogging Codicil to Last Will and Testament, of

To my spouse, children, guardian, administrator and/or executor:

Upon my demise, I do hereby request that you DO NOT dispose of any or all of my research and genealogical materials, prepared personally by me or those prepared by others which may be in my possession, including but not limited to books, files, notebooks, digital files, computer programs, or materials stored in my family archive, known also as _____ FOR A PERIOD OF FIVE YEARS.

During this time period, please attempt to find one or more persons who would be willing to take custody of the said materials and the responsibility of maintaining and continuing the family histories and research. Please contact the persons listed below to inquire if they would be willing to take on the custody of these items.

Please pay particular attention to any specific studies which include, but is not limited to my One-Name Studies and One-Place Studies.

I do not wish to place an undue burden on the executors of my estate, therefore, in the event you are unable to find someone to accept these materials, please contact a historical or genealogical organization that I have been a member of to determine if they will accept some parts or all of my materials. (List of organizations and address below).

It is my desire that you honour this wish to preserve my genealogical and historical research endeavours and pass them on to future generations.
